

Another New Year in a Very Old World ... Next verse, same as the last — sort of.

HERE WE GO AGAIN. ANOTHER YEAR TO GET it right. Another chance to finish that course; get that job; find that partner; fix that leak. And above all, we have another chance to scatter good seed for the Kingdom. Look about you. There's no shortage of projects you can put your mind and energies to. But can you find a project that matters? However you look at it, we only have a short time on the planet—relatively speaking. It's a little like raising children: you plan; you pray; you anticipate; you weep; you do all you can to set your babies on the right path, and then—bang!—right out of the blue, twenty years flew away from right under your nose. All the opportunities are behind you—whether you took advantage of them or not. Time and life are like that.

Chances are you've got more than enough on your plate to keep you busy till the Kingdom comes. And the more creative your disposition, the more projects you're going to find hiding around the next box in the tool shed or garage. If you have an evangelistic gene in your system, then you'll be filling every spare moment searching for souls. There probably aren't as many couch potatoes as we think there are; it's just that they're the ones who get noticed because they sit still long enough to be seen.

We know how it is to be busy. Around our office the phone is alive with the voices of people wanting to get busy with the business of evangelism. Countrywide and from continent to continent, God's people are alive in the hope of the return of Jesus—and they're doing something to share that hope.

To the right are a handful of images from our website ThePerfectStormIsComing.org. These images represent just a handful of the projects being conducted out of our Ministry. There are:

- Our plans to print 65,000 copies of Buscando la Paz Interior (our Spanish Steps to Christ) for distribution throughout the Island Nation of Cuba. We are asking our supporters to help us raise $65,000.00 to complete this part of the project and to kickstart the printing of a further selection of books for the Cuban people.

- Ongoing ministry to prisoners of this country and beyond. Hundreds of books and offers for Bible studies go out of our doors every month. We are asking our supporters to help us meet the expense of books and postage. Thousands of dollars can be spent by us in a single month meeting the needs of those incarcerated.

- Free PDF downloads of our books in more than fourteen languages are available from our website—worldwide. The ongoing expenses for this include registration and storage, and, of course, the basic costs of maintenance.

- Sabbath sermons, Bible studies, Seminar presentations and devotional hours are available from an almost bottomless electronic pit. Material may be watched online, or downloaded to Android and iPhone devices. There are also MP3 files which may be transferred to a smartphone or burned to a CD and shared.

We boldly, but humbly, solicit your prayers and financial assistance. Without you nothing will get done. We'd like to think that God supplies all our need out of thin air, but the truth is ... YOU are the thin air. There's much left to do in our world, and we are at our stations ready to be tools in the Master's hands. As together we embark on the journey of this New Year, please make a plan to regularly support us in our efforts. We're so ready to go home.
