

Digital River from the Throne ... Living streams through video streams

Are you ready?
The Perfect Storm Is Coming!

MY, HOW THINGS HAVE CHANGED! IT USED TO be that news from around the world could take months to arrive in your town center. There was a time when the only report of changes taking place a mere village away would only have been brought to you by the traveling minstrel, singing the news in verse. Books and newspapers were rare additions to any home.

Not so very long ago in America, access to any serious form of education—secular or religious—was through the teacher at the desk and the preacher in the pulpit. Such was the perceived need for clear, reasonable religious instruction, that a college with the name of Harvard was formed for the purpose of training Puritan ministers; later, what we now know as Yale University was founded to continue the Puritan training from which, in the opinion of many, Harvard had strayed away. From their humble beginnings have grown two educational powerhouses that today steer many of the policies governing the nation.

Nowadays just about any information or entertainment you want is just a click away. Long gone, even, are the days of sitting in front of your home PC sifting through electronic pages of text. At this very moment, in millions of homes, offices and on park benches around the world, a person may have access to just about any information they want ... through their cellphone!

Right now you, and anyone else who cares to, can go to our website and click on and listen to hundreds of Sabbath sermons, or read every one of the books we print — in many languages. Thousands of hours have been invested in fine-tuning this vehicle we believe is scattering truth throughout the four corners of the world. It used to be that if you wanted to share video presentations or literature, you had to buy tapes, DVDs, books and tracts from a publishing house. Not anymore. The disappearing video rental store is evidence of a major change in society; nowadays the movies and videos people want to see are streamed in through the cable and phone companies. Gas prices make it far cheaper to rent online.

Current opinion prevails that hard copy books are very unlikely to go away; people still like the feel of a book in their hands because, for one reason, they can see their progress in the book and how far is left to go. With that thought in mind, we'll be happy to sell you all the books you need, but you'll also have free access on our website to all the electronic ones you might wish to share.

God has been good to us, and continues to find ways for us to reach into the minds of men, women and children in the hope of making things better. Your prayers, efforts and financial support make our part possible. One day the night will come, when no one can work, but for now ... let Heaven use you.
