

From Life To Life

“If only I had gotten this information prior to my wrong-doing...” (Letter from a prisoner in Indiana)

I’ve been incarcerated for the past four years awaiting trial. I’m writing to tell you what I’ve been through for the last ten years and how you have changed my life.

In December 2000, I watched my girlfriend give birth to my daughter. In June 2003 I graduated from high school. I attended Valparaiso University School of Law; I wanted to become a lawyer. I was also taking a course in computers as a backup career option.

After marrying, my wife and I moved in with my mother and father in July 2005, because the money we were making wasn’t enough to pay rent, utilities, school loans, etc.

Everything was great until January 2006 when my father was killed in a major car wreck on his way home. The next day was spent planning services for him. That night, while I was visiting a friend, my wife, daughter and mother were all shot and killed by robbers trying to rob the house. There were a total of 16 spent bullet casings.

After all four services, I admitted myself to a mental hospital where I stayed until February 2006. I kept in touch with the detectives, and they told me they were watching four suspects.

Shortly afterward, my friend showed me a blog on MySpace bragging about a killing. I knew one of the people in the accompanying picture. My friend said he knew who these people were and where we could find them. We decided to do justice, because the police hadn’t done anything. We tracked them down and shot and killed them all, plus two other guys. We got in the car and left. We were covered in blood and scared and crying.

A couple of days later I called the detective from my families’ graves and told him where I was. Ten minutes later police arrived and arrested us. My friend and I were charged with murder, and initially sentenced to sixty years. We are awaiting the last trial for the other two guys we shot and killed.

DNA and ballistics confirmed that we got the right guys. All I can say for the other two murders, is I’m sorry it happened in the heat of the moment.

Let me tell you how you came into play. For the four years I’ve been locked up, I never picked up the Bible until March 2010, on the day of sentencing. I was walking back to my cell, and on the ground was this green thing [an IBE book order form]. I picked it up and the first thing I saw was “Finding Peace Within.” I decided to send off for some books and had some sent to my great-grandparents and my half brothers also in jail. When I read “Will America Survive?” I was astounded by what I read so much I spoke with a counselor and got a Bible. I’ve read it every day since. If only I had gotten this information prior to my wrong-doing. I’m locked down 23 hours a day (max). This guy comes once a week and speaks with my friend and me now. It’s great. I’ve learned so much.

I wanted to thank you. And I want you to know I’m not a violent person. I just had to do what I had to do that day. It’s what felt right at the time.

If you have any other religious materials that you could send, I would love to read it. Please keep me in your prayers. I will write and tell you what happens at the next trial. My friend and I have a lot of remorse for what we did. I’m sorry to bore you with this story, but I haven’t been able to write to anyone in four years except a lawyer. Thank you for your time and friendship and kindness. May God bless your soul.
