

Back to School

As the students return, so do we

A FEW YEARS AGO WE ORGANIZED OUR- selves into a handful of small teams armed with our good books, and took them to college campuses across the United States. We kept that up for several years, then took a break. The time has come again to return to school for a new crop of graduates that will soon be heading into the world.

College life in America gets a deservedly bad rap, but among the revelers are honest souls who are looking for something better, looking for a way to make a difference in the cooperate world they will soon be joining, looking for hope where they can find none. These are the people that will benefit from the seed we are scattering in the great halls of learning.

Travelling the country right now are several teams carrying books to be freely distributed across college campuses. The plan is simple: take the books to the dorms and give them away. We did this successfully for years, and are now back on the job to do it again.

By the time you read this brief Communicator the leaves will be falling heavily across North America, symbolic of our books being scattered like the leaves of autumn. The leaves of our books are guaranteed to produce a result, perhaps one that we have not yet seen anywhere on the planet. We've taken our books worldwide, from nation to nation, and we believe the Lord when He says His word will not return to Him void.

When God's word enters the mind, changes take place — creative changes. A person is given the opportunity to walk to the beat of a different drummer, and light is shed on a new path. Strength is given to look upward and climb higher. These are the ideas that are contained in the books we print, and we're thrilled to have a part in their distribution.

There is never a bad time to sow a seed for the Kingdom, but if there was ever a better time, surely it's right now. Who can argue with the reality that we are closer to the End than we have ever been? The signs in society, in the religious world, and in nature itself are telling us that some kind of conclusion is at hand.

Our teams will need your support. There will be expenses: gas, food, lodging, and just ordinary down-to-earth expenses. You can help by setting aside each month a portion of your offering to the Lord's work and fill in the form below. Scribble a note and mark your gift for use with "Colleges." We'll make sure your offering gets put to good use, and you will be sure of a reward in heaven. It's not clear exactly how "treasure" is defined in Heaven, but it's doubtful any of us will be disappointed as we receive our individual portion. Now help us get to work. Your Mission World Family
