

Ellen G. White

How Psychics, Suddenly Everywhere, Are Healing the World

By Tara Isabella Burton / ReligionNews.com / April 11, 2019

The popularity of psychics has been steadily climbing for the past half-decade to become a $2 billion industry. According to a study conducted by Pew last year, around 40 percent of Americans said they believe in psychics, a number that held up equally for self-identified Christians and the religiously unaffiliated There is no authority higher, in short, than human sensitivity What you feel — the core of your authentic or true self — is the only reliable source of knowledge.

<https://religionnews.com/2019/04/11/how-psychics-suddenly-everywhere-are-healing-the-world/>

"Satan beguiles men now as he beguiled Eve in Eden by flattery, by kindling a desire to obtain forbidden knowledge, by exciting ambition for self-exaltation. It was cherishing these evils that caused his fall, and through them he aims to compass the ruin of men. 'Ye shall be as gods,' he declares, 'knowing good and evil.'"

—America in Prophecy (The Great Controversy, p. 554)

Infallibility: Keeping the Faith

By Mike Stapp / BeginningCatholic.com / © 2016

Although individual bishops may err in their official teachings about faith and morals, the Magisterium as a whole never does. Nor does the Pope, by nature of Christ's special creation of Peter's office as one that "confirms the brethren" in the faith.

<http://www.beginningcatholic.com/infallibility>

"The papal church will never relinquish her claim to infallibility. All that she has done in her persecution of those who reject her dogmas she holds to be right; and would she not repeat the same acts, should the opportunity be presented? Let the restraints now imposed by secular governments be removed and Rome be reinstated in her former power, and there would speedily be a revival of her tyranny and persecution."

—America in Prophecy (The Great Controversy, p. 564)

The Coming Obsolescence of Animal Meat

By Tisha Powell / ABC11.com / April 9, 2019

Animal meat is a habit that many young Americans are ready to abandon. A quarter of 25-to-34-year-old Americans now say they are vegans or vegetarians, prompting The Economist to proclaim 2019 "the year of the vegan" The idea that human gustatory pleasure necessarily involves the inhumane farming of other creatures might come to be seen as outdated and gauche. A "real" chicken sandwich might be viewed, in some quarters, as barbarous as poaching."

<https://www.theatlantic.com/health/archive/2019/04/just-finless-foods-lab-grown-meat/587227/>

"How can they take the life of God's creatures that they may consume the flesh as a luxury? Let them, rather, return to the wholesome and delicious food given to man in the beginning, and themselves practice, and teach their children to practice, mercy toward the dumb creatures that God has made and has placed under our dominion."

—Health & Happiness (Ministry of Healing, p. 317)

"As the teachings of spiritualism are accepted by the churches, the restraint imposed upon the carnal heart is removed, and the profession of religion will become a cloak to conceal the basest iniquity. A belief in spiritual manifestations opens the door to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils, and thus the influence of evil angels will be felt in the churches."

—America in Prophecy (The Great Controversy, pp. 603 & 604)
