January 2019:

Hello Friends,

Here we are again on the brink of another New Year. How quickly the years pass by now. 2018 is behind us, and we praise God for the many miracles and blessings we have witnessed this past year. The books continue to stream out of our doors — by the ton! Calls continue to pour in from near and far ... soldiers of God seeking tools with which to witness. And because of you, we are able to answer the call.

This past year, because of our health, Judy and I were unable to travel. We miss seeing your faces and hugging your necks. We pray that our GIFT DVD allows us to enter your homes and lift your spirits in these dark times. The state of affairs in the world surely tells us that things are drawing to a close. It won't be long now — surely!

I wish I could tell you that I am better, that my condition has improved, but alas things are pretty much on track as expected. Judy is patient, and without her support this would be a much harder burden to bear. Judy has continued to heal from her accidents and, praise God, her recent scan has come back negative!

For almost 40 years now we have been faithful to the call of the Book Work. And more than 50 million publications have left our doors and made their way into the world — in more languages than we can remember. It's astonishing, when we step back and take a look at what God has done through our humble ministry and our faithful supporters.

My prayer for you in this coming year is for prosperity, peace, faithfulness, and for a holy zeal for the work of God. There is much left to be done, and so little time left. So the work must be completed by miracles from Heaven. We want to continue to be a part of the work to finish the Gospel Commission, and we continue to solicit your prayers and your financial support. Without God we can do nothing, and without you we can do even less. So thank you for all you are to us, and may God continue to bless you and yours.

On behalf of myself, Judy and all the Staff here at Mission World, we love you and wish you a Happy and Blessed New Year!
