

Ministry Behind Bars A work that always needs attention

In any given year, almost 2½ million adult residents of the United States make a federal facility their home away from home. It is estimated that 6% of US prison inmates are non-citizens. Their crimes range from misdemeanor to criminally dangerous. Some sit awaiting trial; others, in more extreme circumstances, sit awaiting execution. In either case, and all in between, our ministry offers a small, but persistent, voice of hope.

One of the foundations upon which the charter of our work was built was that of prison ministry, with the object in mind of placing good books in the hands of those behind bars. Through the years God has seen to it that our work has not been wanting, and our efforts have never been wasted. In 2010 alone we received back almost a thousand Bible lessons to be graded. In addition to the lessons, we mailed almost 8,000 books to prisoners and their family members—all as free gifts. Chaplains and prisoners have written to tell us of small groups forming to read our books and study the lessons we provide. Can we hear a hearty AMEN!

Life on-the-inside is not like life in the rest of the world, where most of us live. Out here, when we run out of something, we simply go to the store and pick it up. If we want to read a book, we either buy it or visit the local library and check it out. In a prison, reading materials have to develop the ability to experience life after death; in other words, when most of us would consider a thing fit for the trash, then it is that someone has to get out the Scotch tape and paste the thing back together. Welcome to life behind bars, the place where books may be accurately judged by their covers.

And the story often goes on once the inmates leave the gates. Frequently we receive letters of thanks from those who had read our books and Bible lessons while locked up, as well as many notes of gratitude from their families; these are always refreshing.

If you have contributed to our Prison Ministry fund, or to any Mission World project during this past year, thank you! Your donations are a sacred trust to us and are never a waste. None of our work would be possible without you. We can't say it enough—Thank you!

"QUOTABLE"

"America is the land of the second chance—and when the gates of the prison open, the path ahead should lead to a better life."

—George W. Bush.
