The Last Year On Earth ... !

The final call to come out of the Babylonian closet

WOULDN'T YOU LOVE TO HEAR THAT CALL? HOW about being a part of the last great thrust for the salvation of souls? If there were something more important than being ready for Jesus to come, perhaps it would be being ready to help others get ready for Jesus to come. Of course, a man or woman can do nothing for the salvation of a fellow human, except perhaps to offer them opportunities to get to know the One Who cares for and loves them more than can be understood.

Human nature is such that we rarely set the alarm earlier than we need. With that thought in mind, perhaps it is in mercy to all of us that God has chosen not to reveal when "Snooze" will have been pressed for the last time. None of us knows when the last soul shall have been sealed. Perhaps only the Voice of God Himself will announce the moment when all that can be done has been done. Perhaps this is a task that God is looking forward to handling alone, just like the wiping away of the last tear; no angel, prophet or Sabbath School teacher is to have that privilege. "I will restore," says God. One thing we do know for sure: there is time — perhaps not as much as we would like — to step away from the distractions that chew on us, and seek a way to sow good seed.

In this New Year find a way to include even more evangelism in your life. Get outside of your spiritual front door. Be quiet and ask the Lord to work through you in ways that He perhaps hasn't before. Ask Him to go beyond your rehearsal of the things you know and use you anew. This next year is someone's last.
