

Can You Keep a Secret? Good, 'cause this is very hush hush ...

LETTING THE FAT CAT RIGHT OUT OF THE BAG
at the start of this Communicator, we're going to tell you that we give away much more material than we will ever sell. Every day requests come in the mail, or in the email inbox, or by phone, requesting one or more of our books. Our ongoing Prison Ministry provides publications to prisons across the nation and beyond, even to islands in the Caribbean. Federal prisons provide no funds for the spiritual foods found in their libraries and chapels; this food is provided by people on the outside who care about those on the inside. The prison offers only the need, we supply the lack. If you give funds to support our ministry, you are providing for the spiritual rehabilitation of many a wretched soul sitting on the edge of despair, souls you will one day meet—have no doubt.

We support and maintain a website which offers free downloads of all our books and booklets, and we invite browsers to contact us for a free hard copy if they would like one. The website also provides a page where visitors around the globe may watch, listen and download Sabbath Sermons and Seminar presentations free of charge. A surprising amount of people watch, listen and read our materials right there on their cellphones. A portion of the gifts you send us are used to keep bandwidth open for our tech-savvy evangelists. Take a moment to visit and share the website using the address at the top of this page.

Speaking of evangelists, we mustn't neglect a mention of the many book and disc broadcasters around the world. Because our books, DVDs and CDs are heavily subsidized by good people like yourself, we are able to provide cases of books to many people who also would like to give them away, but would otherwise be unable to afford to scatter good seed as heavily as is needed in these dark times. A quick glance at the mainstream evening news on any day of the week is enough to convince you that the world has been broken by people who are unable to fix it. The only hope the people of the world have is built upon the reality that Heaven will return to this planet and make an end of the way things are. Our job is to help God's children see the signs of the times and not greet Jesus as a complete stranger when He arrives.

Good business sense would urge that we stop giving away that which we can't afford and start making people pay for the tools which will lead them to the only salvation Heaven provides. perhaps you should keep our strategy a secret; after all, how will a person ever get rich if they keep giving away that which God provides?
