

Angels Speaking Spanish Again After a much-needed hiatus, words are flowing

When our Spanish version of "Who Are the Angels?" went out of print several years ago, the text was merged into a bi-lingual (English/Spanish) version of the booklet. For a while this worked—sort-of. But it became increasingly clear that the bi-lingual booklet was often more than was needed; twice the book meant twice the space (100 copies instead of 200 per box). So it was decided to take the Spanish-only version back to press.

It may interest you to know that almost 400 million people worldwide speak Spanish. About half of the population in the Western Hemisphere speaks Spanish. Most of South America speaks Spanish, as does Central America and Mexico. Within the United States, Spanish is the second most widely spoken language after English—by a very wide margin. So here's the book, back in our catalog and ready to go to work.

Remember, it's not necessary to be able to speak a foreign language to enable you to evangelize the world; give 'em something to read. •
