

"Watch—and Pray!"

Adapted from "I Heard Your Voice and I Was Afraid" by Tony H.

Many of us are patiently watching as governments around the world bend under the weight of dark forces in dark places, forces which are seeking to put in place a system not guided by our Heavenly Father. Bible-believing Christians see the sinister doctrines of the New World Order creeping into our schools, our colleges, our legal systems, leading the people of earth ever further away from the worship of our Creator.

The Advent People are watching the horizon for the enforcement of the Mark of the Beast, Sunday Laws, and the arrival of spiritualistic manifestations. These issues and the controversy surrounding them will stir the minds of the entire population of the planet. For sure, we need to be given the opportunity to make an intelligent decision regarding who we will serve and why. The freedom is ours to exercise, but we first need to know there is a choice. That's why we scatter books like the leaves of Autumn.

It's vitally important to keep our eyes peeled for the end-time deceptions of the Devil. It's also important to keep our eyes on our own personal, present state. To misquote John Bunyan: "Don't throw away the apple and keep the core."

The prince of darkness and his servants are striving to keep our attention away from the Word of God ... the will of God ... the counsel of God. If he can, he'll get our attention off of important issues that Heaven would like us to focus on with the whole heart.

God doesn't change. It doesn't matter how long ago He said not to do it, He still means don't do it. The Bible may indeed be an ancient Book, but the God of the Bible is as fresh as ever. He hasn't changed. And nothing about His counsel has changed either. Our God suffers from no distraction. If it didn't matter to our Father and our relationship with Him, He wouldn't have wasted our short time on the planet talking about it.

Make no mistake, the Devil spares not a single thought looking out for our best interest. On the contrary, his conversations with us are more along the lines of:

*"God said this ... but, oh, look at that!"
"Isn't this fruit pretty?"
"Here, just take a bite."*

Dishonesty, immorality, insensitivity, the taking of life, back-biting, inuendo, gossip. These attitudes and behavior are not inspired by Heaven. If we allow these poisons into our souls and permit them to rule the roost, then when we finally see the enthronement of the New World Order and the Mark of the Beast under the control of spirits of devils, we will find that we are more in harmony with that system than against it. Jesus said that there's coming a time when he that kills us will believe he's doing God's will. Is it any wonder that Jesus had nothing to say about "Marks" and "Sundays"? If we can't get through grade school, we likely won't pass the university test. Get past the milk before going on to the meat.

There's so much more in the Bible than just love and hugs. There ARE love and hugs; but there's also counsel against attitudes and behavior that will kill us—eternally. If it weren't harmful, God would not have steered us away from it.

Just over the horizon is the return of the Creator of all things. Many Christians are expecting this return, but are actually unaware of who they're looking for. "I never knew you," are awful words to hear from the mouth of Jesus. Make no mistake, our Father does love us; He does care for us. He knows what time the clock is reading. He knows that same clock is winding down. And He knows the glory that awaits us just over yonder.

"I heard Your voice, and I was afraid," are words that never need to cross our lips. But rather, "This is our God, and we have waited for Him."

Be brave. It is our Father's good pleasure to give us the kingdom.
