UFO'S AND THE "TIME OF THE END"

PART I

By: Charles Wheeling

I am 63 years of age. I was born one month after Pearl Harbor was bombed. Even though I experienced World War II as a small child, I still retain many vivid memories of that time. I can remember my father complaining that he could not find tires for his business vehicle. Tires were rationed because of the war effort. I can remember my mother borrowing and lending certain food items with ladies in the neighborhood. Staples like sugar were rationed because of the war effort.

I was only two years old when my first brother was born, but I vividly recall the morning the ambulance brought my mother and my new brother to our home. I can remember where the ambulance parked in the front yard so my mother would not have to walk a great distance to enter the house. I was only two years old, but I vividly remember stepping barefoot on the metal grate covering a gas floor furnace in our home. The soles of both my feet were solid blisters for almost two weeks, and the pain...

Two homes away from ours, the father and an 18-year-old son were serving in the Navy, fighting the Japanese in the South Pacific. The father was a Navy Seabee—the son was a gunner's mate in a large gun turret on a major U.S. battleship. Directly across the street, the father in another home was an infantry machine gunner, fighting the Germans in Sicily and Italy. Two uncles on my mother's side were marines, island-hopping and fighting Japanese forces across the Pacific.

One uncle, Johnny, was lying on his cot in a tent on the island of Guadalcanal, reading his Bible out loud to his buddy. Japanese bombers appeared suddenly—their tent, with everything in it, (including the clothes they were wearing) was blown to smithereens. Both men survived—naked—with my uncle still clutching his Bible. His brother, my other Marine uncle, Alfred, 21 years of age, a U.S. Sherman tank commander on Iwo Jima (1945), was killed crossing the first Japanese airfield. I was just three years of age, but distinctly remember my mother crying and telling my father, “Alfred is dead, I know it; he will never come back!” Several weeks would pass before the family would be officially notified.

World War II was an intense event. It created intense and lasting memories for even a child. A third uncle on my mother’s side was only 15 years of age in 1945. He wanted desperately to enlist in the Marine Corps and “fight.” Of course he was too young, but he expressed his great interest in the war by constructing gorgeous balsa and tissue models of U.S. warplanes. In 1945, I was only three years of age, but I held a great fascination with my Uncle Jimmy’s model planes. Let me repeat his words to me as I recall them: “Boy, if you touch my planes, I’ll kill you!”

In 1947, I was five years of age. Our home was located between Bessemer and Birmingham, Alabama. I remember the year clearly for several reasons. World War II had ended and Army surplus was for sale everywhere. My first brother, Wayne, and I shared a bedroom. Our parents had purchased Army bunk beds and green, wool Army blankets for us. I know the year was 1947 because my next brother, Glenn, would be born in that year, and he had not yet arrived. For some reason, perhaps a nightly bathroom trip, I was awakened during the night. My bed was positioned against a wall and window, my pillow placed to allow me a broad view of the night sky. In 1947, at five years of age, I saw my first UFO—my first Unidentified Flying Object.

So what could a five-year-old child possibly know about objects in the sky? Well, perhaps a great deal if the child had been barraged with talk in the family of a terrible war taking place and daily news photos of planes and bombs, etc. A child of five years could possess some understanding of flying machines if he had an uncle who was obsessed with planes and was always explaining to his young nephew how planes “operate.”

The sky was clear and moonless through my window that night in 1947. There were many stars in the sky, but one seemed much brighter than all the others. It was motionless. While I lay for a few moments peering through my window, suddenly that bright object began moving. A falling star? A meteorite? No way, José! The object flew northward with a flat, level trajectory. Its speed was not exceptional, but it was certainly moving more rapidly than any airplane I had ever seen. As I watched, this luminous object almost disappeared from sight beyond my window and suddenly stopped. Remember, in 1947 there were no helicopters—they would not be invented for at least two more years. Airplanes in 1947 could not hover or stand still in the sky. Nor could they reverse themselves in flight. The night was clear and cloudless, so this was not a reflection. Some seconds passed and the object returned, following the same trajectory, this time toward the south, at breakneck speed, and disappeared from view. The year was 1947.

In that same year, 1947, as a matter of historical record, Alabama and the Southeastern United States were experiencing what is termed a “UFO flap.” Countless sightings were being reported in the newspapers. People were calling police stations, airport towers and the military and telling their neighbors about the “strange lights” they were seeing at night. Remember this year—1947.

Only a few weeks at best after I observed my first UFO, a young black woman, who worked in our home two or three days a week helping my mother, appeared this particular morning excited almost to the point of hysteria. My mother tried to calm her and discover the cause of her excitement. I was standing there: "Oh, Mrs. Wheeling, my husband been up all night with his shotgun shootin' at them boogie lights!" The "boogie lights" had appeared so apparently near homes in their community that her husband, along with neighbors, were out with guns firing at them. They appeared to be so near the ground that one shotgun blast actually severed power lines.

The years 1945-47 were filled with hundreds of reports of UFO sightings and numerous military encounters across America, from Roswell, New Mexico to Washington D.C. UFOs were seen hovering above our Nation's Capitol and military jets were scrambled on several occasions to meet these supposed "threats." These facts are a matter of record for anyone who cares to dig a bit at the library. Project Blue Book became a prominent topic of conversation and heated debate. Many believe, as I do today, that Project Blue Book was a very convenient government cover-up to keep the public from panic and hysteria. "Nonsense," you say. Well, if you don't recall, let me remind you: these were the '40s and '50s. Late in the '30s, Orson Wells had panicked much of the United States with his War of the Worlds broadcast (out of New York City, as I recall), super realistically informing Americans that Martians had landed and were making war on American citizens.

From 1945 until the mid-'50s UFO sightings and encounters increased. Of particular interest and concern to government officials and the U.S. military, were UFOs observed hovering over sensitive military bases, atomic and thermonuclear test sites, as well as important buildings in Washington D.C. Wild conjecture and rumor were the order of the day. Were they secret Russian spy craft? Were they visitants from other worlds? Perhaps they were our own secret spy craft and we did not want anyone else in the world to know that they belonged to us.

Stay tuned. Next week, in Part II of UFOs and the "Time of the End," I will tell you of my second encounter with UFOs and the powerful, lasting effect it had on me.

UFO'S AND THE "TIME OF THE END"

PART 2

Some of you are "ahead of the game." You have already taken note of my repeated emphasis upon the year 1947 in Part I. Some of you are "quick on the draw" and you have already put global UFO stirrings together with the year 1948—the year Israel became a nation once again. Surely you understand that Bible prophecy, end-time prophecy, end-of-the-world stuff, etc., are always, in some way, focused on that small piece of real estate.

During World War II, I had two more uncles, on my father's side of the family, who served in the U.S. Army. Both of them saw action during the war, one in Europe and one in Southeast Asia. One uncle, my "Uncle Sam," was career military, a Lt. Colonel, and served in Burma during World War II, and afterward served in the Korean conflict.

As best I can recall, the year was 1949. Uncle Sam was home on leave and was soon shipping out for Korea as things were heating up there in 1949/1950. The very fact that Uncle Sam was home on leave was a special occasion and called for a family reunion. Some 30-40 adults and children gathered that summer afternoon and evening at my Wheeling grandparents' home in Bessemer, Alabama. Everyone, including yours truly, enjoyed one of those fabulous meals people prepare for family reunions. In 1949, television had not yet happened, at least for the public. So what could a gathering of 30 or 40 people possibly do to entertain themselves without television? We did the old-fashioned thing; after our meal, we went out on the front porch and spilled across my grandparents' postage-stamp-sized front yard. We sat in chairs and gliders, in front porch swings and on sidewalk steps. Adults talked and children cavorted.

The evening was clear, moonless and cloudless. A thousand and a thousand more stars sparkled overhead. I was seven, perhaps eight years of age. This was to be the occasion of my second UFO sighting. Remember, there were 30 or 40 witnesses present. It was my Army Lt. Colonel, Uncle Sam, who took first note of the astonishing sight transpiring overhead. His words, as I recall them, were loud and forceful: "Good Lord, look at that?"

I wish that I could share the video image retained in my memory of what took place that evening. I will try to use words to paint the picture, but words really are not adequate. Naysayers will try to convince you and me that "we were seeing reflections." Or they will shrug off 30 or 40 eyewitness accounts as "group hysteria." If you had been there, you would know better.

As my uncle shouted, necks craned upward and there was one familial gasp. One speeding, luminous object was coming from the North—a second speeding, luminous object came from the South. "Speeding" does not adequately convey the velocity with which these objects were moving. I have no idea of the altitude of these objects, but it would be at least several thousand feet. No matter the altitude, they did not appear to be tiny dots of light. On the contrary, they were much larger and brighter than any of the stars glittering in the background. These two objects met one another almost directly over our heads and instantaneously stopped beside each other—one East and one West. They appeared motionless for at least half a minute. I can still hear the voices of children and adults exclaiming, "Look, what is it?"

After approximately one half minute, these two objects began circling one another in a blinding frenzy. Not sparks, but "bits of light" seemed to be emanating from each object as they circled overhead. These bits of light had not been visible as they approached, one from the North and one from the South, but only as they ferociously circled one another above our heads. I cannot say that any sound from the objects could be distinctly heard, but I do remember something similar to a “faint swishing” during the dance. This spectacle continued for perhaps a half-minute more, then instantaneously both objects stopped overhead, side by side, one East and one West. This time they held motionless only a few seconds and then each object sped, one Northward and one Southward like lightning. A hush had fallen over the entire family gathering.

This second UFO encounter gripped my mind and further piqued my youthful interest, as you may well imagine. During the Korean conflict and the first half of the ‘50s, UFOs appeared in leading newspaper headlines on a frequent basis. In 1950, my father purchased the first television set in our entire neighborhood. What excitement! Neighbors appeared from every direction to watch “TV” on our 8- or 9-inch RCA screen! During the next few years, no matter when or where the subject of UFOs surfaced, on radio, TV or in the newspaper, if I heard it or saw it I was captivated. My interest in UFOs was more than casual.

When I was 12 years of age (1954), my family moved to West End, a section of Birmingham, Alabama. Our home there was 12 city blocks from a major branch of the Birmingham Public Library. Here I spent many enjoyable hours reading and rarely ever returned home without 10 or 12 volumes to devour. Believe me when I say the books I selected and read were not of the “See Spot Run” variety. I consumed volumes and volumes on the natural sciences—Astronomy, Geology and Aeronautics were early loves. Add to that, Science Fiction and UFOs!

Only a few books about UFOs were being published and available for the public in the early ‘50s. I assure you though that I read every volume available through the public library during those years. From Major Donald Keyhoe to George Adamski, I had a standing request at the library for every author and every publication dealing with the topic of UFOs. In 1961, I was among the first (in the entire state of Alabama at least) on the library list to read Incident at Exeter, the famous Barney and Betty Hill UFO Abduction Account. For years, I purchased magazines at local newsstands, if any hint of a headline or article mentioning UFOs appeared on the covers. For several years I spent more than a few evenings hoping and trying to catch a glimpse of UFOs once again.

My mother took note of the various UFO volumes that I brought home from the library. She began asking me to hold onto some of these UFO titles until she had an opportunity to read them too. I'm sure that her own interest was piqued because of the "boogie lights" incident with the excited young black woman working in our home in 1947; and of course my mother was present at the family reunion and experienced our family's incredible dual UFO sighting in 1949/1950. Her interest, like mine, grew exponentially. We would often converse about the books we were reading, wondering what UFOs could possibly be and what these things could possibly mean.

In 1953, we both read George Adamski's first title Flying Saucers Have Landed. Adamski was a California/West Coast "nut case," at least many viewed him that way. He claimed to be a "contactee," receiving visits from and having communication with beings from other worlds. These alien beings, Adamski said, were visiting earth in flying saucers, and they were coming from other worlds. Then, in 1955, we both read his second release Inside the Spaceships.

1955 would prove to be a significant year in my UFO odyssey. Why? Because during the first few months of that year my mother and I began "Bible studies" with a church group some 8-10 blocks from our home. Looking back to that time, I can see that God was directly intervening, working expressly in behalf of my family. I believed then, and I believe to this day, that God was working, as only God can work, to save us from a demonic deception and what could have become a life-long fascination with the occult.

Stay tuned for Part III of UFO's and "The Time of the End." I will share some of the wonderful truths my mother and I learned from the Bible; and how George Adamski's second volume Inside the Spaceships convinced us that we needed to distance ourselves from the UFO phenomena.

UFO'S AND THE "TIME OF THE END"

PART 3

Karen is back! Before I continue with the experience my mother and I shared as a result of our Bible study in the '50s, I want to share some more current history.

Twenty-five years ago, while addressing thousands of people in hundreds of audiences on several continents, I tried to explain to those in attendance that UFOs and "an alien invasion" would constitute a major deception at the time of the end. Only a few persons of the thousands I addressed seemed to grasp what I was saying! Most of the people in front of me expressed rather glazed, dazed expressions as though they were thinking that perhaps "I was an alien."

Of course in 25 years, dozens of movies and TV productions have made the subject of UFOs a bit more palatable. Nevertheless, after so many questioning looks 20-25 years ago, I decided that I would say little or nothing regarding UFOs in my Seminars. I would wait until...

Last November (2004), I was impressed that rapidly fulfilling prophetic events in the Middle East (Ram vs. the He-Goat of Daniel, Chapter 8) proved, at least to my understanding, that “the time of the end is at hand.” I decided to introduce, once again, the subject of UFOs as a sign of the end times in my Seminars. I actually prepared and printed a chart under the title “The Time of the End.” I shared a copy with everyone attending my autumn 2004 Seminars. Here is a portion of what appeared on that chart:

*Open the attached PDF for a Last-Year-Scenario chart;

This series of events could possibly occur in the autumn of the same year that the He-goat confronts the Ram, breaking the higher horn (Iran).

[I went on record in those Seminars, sharing the best information available to me at that time, predicting that 2005 would likely be the year the United States will attack Iran, thus breaking the second, higher horn of the Ram. This event, as I understand it, will initiate all those prophetic events that follow the shattering of the “Notable Horn” of the He-Goat as revealed in visions to the prophet Daniel. All those subsequent events, the Angel Gabriel explained to Daniel, would take place during “the time of the end.”]

- A Great Earthquake in Jerusalem collapses the Dome of the Rock
- War in Jerusalem over the Temple Mount (Counterfeit Armageddon)
- Global economic collapse
- False prophets, false apostles and UFO visitants appear globally as friends

- Moses and Elijah (Two Witnesses) appear in Jerusalem, preaching . . .
- Possible fly-by of large object in the heavens resulting in worldwide earthquakes, extreme global weather changes and pestilences of all sorts
- Fear, surprise and prophetic interest ignite global religious fervor
- The First Angel's Message (Revelation, Chapter 14) begins to sound as Daniel's book is opened and Judgment in Heaven is announced to the world!

With the re-election of President Bush to the White House, as predicted in my Seminars last autumn, President Bush would lead the Government of the United States in building a case against a "nuclear capable Iran." I echoed the opinions of numerous columnists and political observers, saying that "stern warnings would be issued by the U.S. against Iran and perhaps Syria," in the spring of 2005.

To my own astonishment, President Bush, Vice President Cheney, Condoleezza Rice, Donald Rumsfeld and other high-placed notables in Washington, have not ceased vilifying and warning Iran and now Syria against the course they are taking. War with Iran appears imminent. These events are prophetically significant!

To my own astonishment, suddenly the news is filled with excited reports of UFO sightings in many parts of the world. Decades-old investigations of UFO phenomena are being reopened. Suddenly major networks and prominent media are announcing to the world that "UFOs do exist! We are being visited by beings from other worlds! Our government, as well as others, has known these things for decades but for fear of panicking the public they have been kept secret!"

Just last evening, I viewed a special two-hour presentation on the History Channel entitled, “UFO Files,” and I have alerted you repeatedly of the special two-hour ABC presentation by Peter Jennings entitled, “UFOs, Seeing Is Believing”—it airs tomorrow night, Thursday, February 24, 8/7c. The timing of these events is prophetically significant!

Now, back to my story: As I mentioned in Part II, my mother and I were invited to Bible study at a church near our home. I was a youth of 13 years at that time (1955). One of the studies we were sharing was of particular interest to me—it was about angels—evil, as well as good. Inexperienced in the Bible as I was, I had never given much thought or consideration to the existence of evil or demonic angels. I suppose I was like most everyone else out there, when you hear of angels, you think right away that angels come from heaven and they are here to do good things for people.

What an eye-opener! Not only was I made aware of the existence of evil spirits, I came to understand that “they are up to no good and that they work tirelessly to deceive human beings and do them harm.” I learned that they possess powers beyond our own and that evil angels can work miracles, just like the loyal, good, faithful angels from heaven are able to perform miracles. By “miracle,” I mean an act that is supernatural or beyond normal human ability.

One study we shared from Scripture regarding fallen angels, revealed what actually happens when a person dies. What an eye-opener! I discovered in Scripture that God absolutely forbids contact with “familiar spirits, necromancy, witches, wizards, etc,” and I learned that “Satan is the father of lies.” The very first lie recorded in the Bible is found in the third chapter of Genesis. Here it is:

1 Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die...

Even as a youth, I had difficulty attending funerals. It never made sense to me that “if people go to heaven when they die, why is everyone crying—they ought to be rejoicing!” Only a year before, in 1954, I was a member of the YMCA in Bessemer, Alabama. On one occasion at the “Y”, while playing basketball with some friends, a very large fellow ran into me at full speed, literally tossing me bodily into the air. I landed head first on the hard wooden floor and was knocked unconscious for some two or three minutes, I am told. I have to add, “I am told,” because I was unconscious and didn’t know anything. If being unconscious means knowing nothing, how could it be that “death means knowing everything?”

As we rehearsed Scripture after Scripture, Old and New Testament, regarding the subject of death, I could see that Satan had used this great lie very effectively to deceive human beings. Even today, most Christians are not aware that the basis for every heathen religion on our planet is rooted in the belief that “the human spirit does not die.” Ancestor worship, worship of the dead and prayers to dead people are central to paganism and even some large Christian faiths. More later about the Bible and “What Part of ‘Dead’ Do You Not Understand?”

What does all this have to do with UFOs you ask? Everything! Please remember, even as a youth, I was widely read and well read regarding the UFO phenomena. I had read numerous accounts of UFO encounters, related by contactees, that included conversations with so-called alien beings informing them that “their departed/deceased/dead loved one is alive and happy on another planet.” In some cases contactees were allegedly permitted to visit and converse with “departed” loved ones. UFOs and UFO encounters are in reality mainstream occultism. Paranormal activity associated with so many UFO encounters is the primary reason why most scientists have carefully avoided involvement and investigation of the UFO phenomena.

Having read so many accounts of UFOs and purported encounters with humans, it became clear to me that UFO beings are not friendly! As a matter of record, several U.S. Air Force pilots have lost their lives to hostile activity while attempting to intercept and investigate UFOs. And not U.S. pilots only, but pilots of other nations have been killed as well. Thousands of persons worldwide have been abducted against their wills, taken inside UFOs and forced to undergo humiliating, physically and psychologically painful sexual examinations. These facts, coupled with thousands of cattle mutilations associated with UFO sightings and UFO activity, do not suggest friendly aliens!

It was an unfolding awareness of Biblical truth regarding demonic spirits and the occult that caused me to question many things I was reading in UFO literature. George Adamski’s second volume, Inside the Space Ships, gave me real pause. I remember one experience, which Adamski claimed occurred while he was visiting “beings” on board a “Mother Craft.” Those “impressive beings” in their pleasant conversations with Adamski about food, drink, his habit of smoking and the peaceful existence they enjoyed on another world seemed, at first, quite innocent. Then Adamski described a large portrait hanging on a wall inside the craft. He described the “person” in the portrait as having a “commanding, piercing gaze.” “It was obvious to me,” Adamski related, “that this person was very important and was held in high regard by everyone around me.” Adamski inquired, “Who is this person?” “He is the master!” was the reply.

There was no mention of Christ, of God, of the Cross or the necessity of Salvation or the trustworthy weight of Scripture. It was then and there that my mother and I decided to distance ourselves from what seemed quite clearly to be paranormal and occultic. We concluded UFOs represent demonic activity. My mother wisely suggested, “Son, I think we should leave this UFO business alone.”

UFO’S AND THE “TIME OF THE END”

PART 4

Okay, okay, so you watched the ABC two-hour special on UFOs—so what did you learn? I have a few observations—here are some...

For the record, Peter Jennings appeared at the beginning of the report to say a few words and appeared at the end to say a few words. Otherwise, I’m not sure Peter Jennings did the homework. It’s what was NOT REPORTED by Mr. Jennings and ABC that was most significant as far as I’m concerned. The report was ultra-kindergarten! Very brief reference was made to significant events regarding the history of UFOs since 1947, i.e. Project Blue Book, Major Donald Keyhoe, Incident at Exeter, etc.

Here are several things that were not reported and should have been revealed to the American public regarding UFOs:

- 1) As I recall the report, there was no mention of “lives lost” due to hostile alien activity, whether they were pilots or whoever.

- 2) Little or nothing was said regarding the associated paranormal, “spiritualistic” phenomena reported by hundreds of “contactees” and “abductees” around the world.
- 3) Virtually everything reported was “old hat;” outdated information. No mention was made of the current—3+ years now—millions of eyewitnesses—broad daylight, with thousands of personal camcorders verifying—UFO activity in India, Pakistan, Iran, Nepal, Tibet, China, Mexico, etc.

I directed you to the topic of UFOs on the Internet so you could see for yourself the hundreds of sites devoted to UFO activity worldwide. My purpose was not to involve you in the occult, but rather to convince you that “the time of the end” is at hand.

In the ABC report, it should have been crystal clear to you that the government has been lying and covering up the truth of these matters for decades. The government is the government and they have their reasons.

You should also be aware by now that Hollywood, television and the popular media have, in recent years, seized upon UFOs, aliens, mediums, psychic hot lines, ghosts, Harry Potter, ad nauseum—the list is endless. Spiritualism has become a popular topic and practice and big money! Multiplied millions of people are listening late night to George Norry and Art Bell, receiving full initiation into the spirit realm. I have personally followed George Norry for several weeks at night just to confirm for myself what is taking place. 80+% of George Norry’s programs (Coast to Coast AM) are devoted to ghosts, communicating with spirits, “angels,” communicating with the dead, paranormal activity, UFOs and on and on and on.

I do not wish to demean Mr. Norry, Mr. Bell, Mr. Jennings or anyone out there trying to do what seems to them the right thing to do. But it is all too clear that the world is ignorant of Scripture, ignorant of demonic activity and the dangers of spiritualism, and they are completely in the dark regarding Bible prophecy and the end times. Though Scripture and religion are often referred to, the conclusions that are drawn regarding these matters are exactly opposite and contrary to the teaching of Scripture.

From now until Jesus comes, you should expect an increase in UFO activity. Soon, I cannot say whether a month, a year or more, but soon you will hear reports of UFOs appearing, simultaneously above major cities of the world. Watch: soon SETI scientists, astronomers and government officials will announce that they are receiving intelligent, decipherable messages originating beyond our solar system. These messages prove, they will conclude, that intelligent life exists on other worlds and that the messages being received are apparently reaching earth from a friendly and peaceful race. Soon thereafter, announcements will be made that 'visitors from other worlds' are coming to earth to meet with government and spiritual leaders representing several nations.

What a wonderful story they will tell: "Our civilization is much older and far more advanced than yours. We have learned to live in peace on our world(s). We want you to experience peace on your planet too. Of course we have been visiting your earth for hundreds of years, taking note of your evolving social and scientific accomplishments. But we see many things happening on your planet presently that could destroy all life on earth. Unless you (the people of earth) come together in harmony, your planet is doomed. We are your friends and we are ambassadors of peace and good will to all the people of earth."

It won't be long now, millions, perhaps billions of human beings will very soon, with the naked eye, observe these alien craft. Likely billions more will see and hear of them via television and the popular media. These "aliens" will speak of the Bible, the Koran, of Jesus, of Mohammed, of Buddha, of certain human beings that evolved spiritually and, at death or translation, came to live with them on their exalted worlds. Stepping out of these other-worldly craft, you, or people you know, may expect exact copies of “loved ones” or friends that allegedly have died, but supposedly are still alive (actually morphed evil spirits) to appear, and they will relate intimate, personal details calculated to deceive. These so called “alien friends” will speak of “the universal Christ” and announce to earthlings that HE is soon returning to earth. But first, they will say, men and nations must ready themselves by making peace and coming together in harmony. BE PREPARED FOR REVERED BIBLE PERSONALITIES TO RETURN TO EARTH AND STEP OUT OF UFOS! THEY WILL CLAIM TO BE APOSTLES, PROPHETS, SAINTS, DECEASED-YET-ALIVE FRIENDS AND LOVED ONES, BUT THEY ARE LIARS. THEY ARE DEMONS AND THEY ARE COMING “TO DECEIVE, IF POSSIBLE, THE VERY ELECT!”

That so much attention is being given to UFOs and spiritualistic phenomena presently is proof to those who are wise and versed in Scripture that “the time of the end” has arrived. Do not be fooled, deceived or entrapped by the yarns these fallen angels will spin or the miracles they will perform—and they will work miracles: “For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world... Blessed is he that watcheth...” —Revelation 16:14, 15.

In an earlier segment, I mentioned that something occurred in 1955 and 1956—something that completely changed the course of my life and that of my family. Not only did we become enlightened through Bible study and the power of God’s Word, but I also had occasion at that time to discover and read a dynamic Christian book that dealt very pointedly with some of these issues. Though the book, written more than 100 years ago, did not speak of “UFOs” per se, it did speak clearly to the issue of spiritualism and end-time deceptions. Here are a few lines from that book:

“Fearful sights of a supernatural character will soon be revealed in the heavens, in token of the power of miracle-working demons. The spirits of devils will go forth to the kings of the earth and to the whole world, to fasten them in deception, and urge them on to unite with Satan in his last struggle against the government of heaven. By these agencies, rulers and subjects will be alike deceived. Persons will arise pretending to be Christ Himself, and claiming the title and worship which belong to the world's Redeemer. They will perform wonderful miracles of healing and will profess to have revelations from heaven contradicting the testimony of the Scriptures.

“As the crowning act in the great drama of deception, Satan himself will personate Christ. The church has long professed to look to the Saviour's advent as the consummation of her hopes. Now the great deceiver will make it appear that Christ has come. In different parts of the earth, Satan will manifest himself among men as a majestic being of dazzling brightness, resembling the description of the Son of God given by John in the Revelation. Revelation 1:13-15. The glory that surrounds him is unsurpassed by anything that mortal eyes have yet beheld. The shout of triumph rings out upon the air: ‘Christ has come! Christ has come!’ The people prostrate themselves in adoration before him, while he lifts up his hands and pronounces a blessing upon them, as Christ blessed His disciples when He was upon the earth. His voice is soft and subdued, yet full of melody. In gentle, compassionate tones he presents some of the same gracious, heavenly truths which the Saviour uttered; he heals the diseases of the people, and then, in his assumed character of Christ, he claims...” —The Great Controversy Between Christ and Satan, p 624.

Similar comments from this same author read like this:

“As we near the close of time, there will be greater and still greater external parade of heathen power; heathen deities will manifest their signal power, and will exhibit themselves before the cities of the world... All need wisdom carefully to search out the mystery of iniquity that figures so largely in the winding up of this earth’s history...

“The perils of the last days are upon us, and in our work we are to warn people of the danger they are in. Let not the solemn scenes which prophecy has revealed be left untouched. If people were half awake, if they realized the nearness of the events portrayed in the Revelation, a reformation would be wrought... Let Daniel speak, let the Revelation speak, and tell what is truth. But whatever phase of the subject is presented, uplift Jesus as the center of all hope, ‘the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright and morning Star.’”

Laboring with such limited time, there are many other issues of prophetic interest that I would like to share. I will not say more presently regarding UFO phenomena, but there will be follow-up in the future.

If perchance there are some among our Prophetic E-news readers that are unaware or not well read in Scripture regarding the state of man in death, I will cheerfully share abundant Scripture and a brief publication or two to explain these matters. This information is yours for the asking, but you must save us time by requesting “More About Spiritualism,” and providing a complete mailing address with your request.

I counsel you to spend very little time reading about or becoming engrossed with the UFO phenomena. Believe me when I tell you that there is an unholy attraction here, one that can lead to demonic obsession. “Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first;

and that man of sin be revealed (seen openly), the son of perdition.” Keep your spiritual eyes and ears open—this is the time of the end

P.S. Thank you, thank you to those of you who so graciously and generously remember us with your gifts of support each month—without you we would not be here...
